PROJECTS & EXPERIENCE

Reci-Pro!   2022
Github | https://github.com/TR742/ReciPro-sitory
- A successful group project during my time at U of A.
- We came up with a recipe sharing site with a twist on utilizing more user interconnectivity.
- My main duties included creating and maintaining the functionality of the back-end model and seeds.

Travel I.O.   2022
Github | https://alexarizona00.github.io/ProjectUno
- Put together as a project among former classmates to test our skills, particularly with Web APIs.
- A travel application with a search-by-city feature that gathers city data on weather, lodging & events.
- I helped with the event web APIs and CSS for the landing page.

Ken's All-Star Movers   2022
github | https://github.com/BrantMartin/KensAllStarMovers
- Another successful project from the 'Reci-Pro!' team.
- It's a would-be website made for an existing company, made to test our skills if said company were a client.
- I created and maintained functionality of the models, seeds and utils for both front and back end.
